WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE DOING JUSTICE-INVOLVED MINISTRY RIGHT NOW?

The COVID-19 Pandemic has fundamentally changed the landscape for ministry. This includes ministry with justice-involved persons both behind bars and in our communities. How do we minister behind the bars when we can't go inside? How do we make a return to our stressed communities safer and healthier for everyone? How do we not get stuck in what we knew and miss the new opportunities God has created before us?

Join us for a timely discussion on the shifting reality of prison and reentry ministry. In this session, discover the new pandemic-induced ministry paradigms that includes justice at the center for engagement. In addition, this session provides real, tangible next steps you can take to be the healing hands and feet of Jesus with justice-involved persons right now and in the post-pandemic future. In this session, you are invited lean into new opportunities for "doing justice" that have emerged as a result of the pandemic.

After registering, you will receive an email confirmation with login & password information.
