

January 27, 2018

The Journey from Transactions to Relationships – Listening to Case Studies

1. What did it take for the person to come to church?

2. What kinds of barriers needed to be overcome?

3. What did you learn from this case study that could be helpful for you?

4. On your newsprint, list those things that brought people into the life of the church. You will share this with the whole group.

The Journey from Transactions to Relationships – Moving towards Change

Personal Reflection

1. What keeps me from being more relational in my ministry?

2. What would make it easier for me?

Small Group Conversation

1. Listen to each other’s reflections. How could you build on what works? What could you do differently to move more deeply into relationships? Be prepared to share some insights with the whole group.

The Journey from Transactions to Relationships – Moving towards Change (con’t)

Personal Commitment and Accountability

1. What am I willing to change?

2. What are three things I will do differently beginning tomorrow? List them and share with the group.

Copyrights

The West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church (WOC) reserves all copyrights in this work. United Methodist entities may use these materials without prior permission or royalty for non-commercial, religious purposes, on the condition that you prominently display the following attribution: “These copyrighted materials are used with the permission of The West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church.”