For many, housing is the biggest barrier during reentry, and it can feel insurmountable. Join us to learn more about the Certificate of Qualification for Housing and new program efforts from ODRC- all intended to help people with felony backgrounds move closer to achieving their housing goals.

Presenter:

Lanaya McDonald
ODRC Reentry Administrator

Tuesday Talks provide family members of incarcerated adults, community members and local reentry stakeholders information regarding statewide initiatives designed to remove barriers to successful reentry and build bridges to better reintegration opportunities. Tuesday Talks occur every two months on the second Tuesday from 10am-11:30am. Hosted on Zoom by:*
