Justice impacted people encounter significant misinformation about social security benefits, and the process of applying for benefits can feel confusing and overwhelming. Join us to get a better understanding of social security and separate fact from fiction, straight from the experts.

Presenters:

Kelly Dragoo and Theresa Busher
Public Affairs Specialists with the Social Security Administration

Tuesday Talks provide family members of incarcerated adults, community members and local reentry stakeholders information regarding statewide initiatives designed to remove barriers to successful reentry and build bridges to better reintegration opportunities. Tuesday Talks occur every two months on the second Tuesday from 10am-11:30am. Hosted on Zoom by:*
