

STEPS TO BECOMING A CERTIFIED LAY MINISTER

A Certified Lay Minister (CLM) is a certified lay servant who is called and equipped to conduct public worship, care for the congregation, assist in program leadership, develop new and existing faith communities, preach the Word, lead small groups or establish community outreach ministries as part of a ministry team with the supervision and support of a clergy person.

To become a Certified Lay Minister, you must be a professing member of a local church or charge, or a baptized participant of a recognized United Methodist ministry or other United Methodist ministry setting.

- Contact the Pastor of your local church to discuss attending the CLM Academy.
- Request the Pastor to schedule a time for the Church Council, Administrative Board or Lead Team to cast a vote regarding their affirmation of your call as a CLM.
- Ask your Pastor to serve as a mentor while attending the CLM Academy. If your Pastor is unable to assist you in the process to become a CLM, request that your District Superintendent or District Committee on Ordained Ministry (DCOM) Chair provide you with a mentor. This assignment should be made in writing.
